The meeting was started at 10 A.M with a silent prayer. Five faculty members and five external experts participated in the meeting. The chairman briefed the agenda of the meeting. The main agenda of the meeting was the revision of the existing UG syllabi.

- Dr. Shaiju P.N. suggested a new paper which can be projected as an introduction to plant science. This will include an overall view of the subject and highlights of each. In that case biosafety measures should be included in the first semester. Suggested by Dr. Prakash P.S. The idea was postponed because of the lack of information regarding the structure of UG syllabus of University of Kerala.
- Dr. Shaiju has introduced an earlier draft prepared by syllabus revision & S.
- Dr. Rubin Jose suggested that the syllabi of each paper should be structured first and later on.

When the university syllabus finishes its revision we can restructure accordingly. So the forum decided to do so.

The meeting first discussed the point to be corrected in the paper I Anatomy and Embryo Reproductive Botany, and Palynology.

- The Present name of the paper was changed and renamed as Anatomy and Embryology. Certain minute changes and rearrangements were made in the paper.
- Sem. II syllabus was kept as such for finalisation of the frame by University of Kerala. Once it is done, it can be revised accordingly.

The meeting dispersed restarted at 1.30 PM.

- Few members suggested that the title has to be changed to Microbiology, Algae, Fungi and Plant Pathology. The suggestion was considered and made the change accordingly. Not considerable changes were made in the content of the paper.

- Taxonomy paper was not undergone much changes since taxonomy experts Dr. Jomy Augustine and Dr. Shaiju P.N. suggested that the present status is satisfactory.

- Dr. Jomy Augustin suggested that L.S. of flower and discription of a plant in technical terms need to be included in the syllabus.

- Few additions and delitions of families were done in the syllabus.

Meeting ended at 3.45 PM deciding to conduct another meeting in the month of September to discuss the remaining part of the syllabus and finalizing it.
